

It was commented on the listening wall, that a database was needed in order to check up on individuals who were more isolated and lonely and couldn't get to Mass. Communication was felt to be an issue.

Comments from the listening wall emphasised the need to listen to all parishioners, including children, young people and new parishioners. Everyone is part of the church. Children should be encouraged to participate more in the Mass.